Description

1. Definition of the term "Business Partner":
 The term "Business Partner" refers to any individual or entity that has a direct or indirect relationship with the company, including but not limited to:
 - Employees, contractors, consultants, and vendors.
 - Suppliers, customers, and distributors.
 - Joint venture partners, franchisees, and licensees.
 - Any other individual or entity that is involved in the company's business operations.

2. Definition of the term "Confidential Information":
 Confidential Information refers to any information that is not generally known or readily ascertainable by the public, and which has economic value because it is confidential. Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to:
 - Trade secrets, formulas, and processes.
 - Customer lists, contracts, and sales data.
 - Financial information, including budgets and forecasts.
 - Any other information that is marked as "Confidential" or "Proprietary".

3. Definition of the term "Non-Disclosure Agreement":
 A Non-Disclosure Agreement is a legal contract between two or more parties that outlines the terms and conditions under which Confidential Information may be disclosed. The agreement typically includes provisions regarding the scope of the information, the obligations of the parties, and the remedies for breach.

4. Definition of the term "Breach":
 A Breach occurs when a Business Partner fails to comply with the terms of a Non-Disclosure Agreement, resulting in the unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information. Breach may include, but is not limited to:
 - Disclosing Confidential Information to a third party without authorization.
 - Using Confidential Information for purposes other than those authorized by the agreement.
 - Failing to take reasonable steps to protect Confidential Information from unauthorized access or disclosure.

5. Definition of the term "Remedy":
 A Remedy is a legal action taken by a party to enforce the terms of a contract or to seek compensation for a breach. Remedies may include, but are not limited to:
 - Injunctive relief, which is a court order that prohibits a party from engaging in a specific activity.
 - Damages, which are monetary compensation for the harm caused by a breach.
 - Specific performance, which is a court order that requires a party to fulfill its obligations under a contract.
